

Submitted by: Faina Bukher, faina.bukher@unh.edu

Company/Organization: University of NH's Center for Social Innovation and Enterprise

Type of organization: Nonprofit

Number of Employees: 3

Category: community/environment/workplace

Challenge or Opportunity:

We know that not all internships are created equal. Internships need to be well supported, mutually beneficial, and transformative learning experiences.

Approach or Solution:

Each year, the Center for Social Innovation and Enterprise partners with a handful of innovative business, nonprofit, and government organizations to help introduce a passionate young person to careers at the intersection of business and social mission.

Impact:

From 2011 - 2018, the Social Innovation Internship placed 105 students at 51 leading organizations that use market-based approaches to tackle pressing social and environmental challenges.