Meet NH Businesses for Social Responsibility's Newest Board Members

For the past twenty years, NHBSR has inspired and supported sustainable business practices within and around New Hampshire. Collaboration is at the core of NHBSR's work; the nonprofit brings together a diverse and vibrant network of businesses, nonprofits and individuals, all committed to creating a more sustainable, equitable and inclusive future. NHBSR's various programs and events are driven by the remarkable dedication, ingenuity and leadership of its Board of Directors. With great pleasure, NHBSR welcomes the newest additions to its leadership team.

Kerrie Diers

Normandeau Associates

Vice President of Normandeau Associates, Inc., Kerrie is a land use planner, with over 20 years of professional experience at the statewide, regional and local level. In addition to her extensive expertise in land use, Kerrie also specializes in transportation, environmental planning, facilitation and community engagement. Kerrie leads Normandeau's Inland Water Group in Bedford, NH, the Stowe, PA office and corporate marketing strategies. She holds a JD from Vermont Law School and a BA from Beloit College.

Steve Gabriel

36creative

Co-Founder & Managing Partner at Salem, NH based 36creative, Steve leads brand marketing and creative strategy for the agency. As a service provider and consultancy firm, 36creative works with top brands, companies and organizations throughout the US. Believing strongly in corporate social responsibility and sustainability, 36creative has implemented a comprehensive program that all of its employees participate and engage in throughout the year. Steve graduated Northeastern with honors.

Morgan Hilow

BerryDunn

As a Senior Accountant for BerryDunn, Morgan works with business and nonprofit clients across various industries, including manufacturing, secondary education, professional services and technology. She performs an array of accounting and audit services as well as internal control consulting. Morgan helps drive BerryDunn's corporate social responsibility and sustainability initiatives and is a leader on the firm's emerging Sustainability Consulting Practice. She oversees BerryDunn's University of New Hampshire Social Innovation Internship program. Morgan received both her BA and MS from University of NH.
